

the shelton chronicle

A publication for the faculty and staff of Shelton State Community College

Vol. 1 No. 3

March 17, 1994

Page 1

Gubernatorial Candidate Visits College

Senator ANN BEDSOLE, R-Mobile, a candidate for Governor in this year's election, visited Shelton State Community College recently. Speaking to over 50 members of the faculty and staff of the college, Senator Bedsole addressed the issue of education reform during her speech. ♪

Happenings on Campus

MARCH 16: A BLOOD DRIVE will be held on the Skyland Boulevard Campus from 9 a.m. - 4 p.m. The blood drive is sponsored by United Blood Services and Shelton State's nursing department.

APRIL 28: VOLUNTEER for Project Literacy. A workshop for volunteers who are interested in volunteering for Project Literacy will be held at 6 p.m. in the learning resource center. If you are interested in becoming a volunteer, contact Phyllis Stanley at 391-2420.

MAY 22: GED GRADUATION will be held on Sunday at 2:30 p.m. in the Skyland Campus Auditorium. ♪

Folsom and Milady - What a Pair!

DR. MILADY MURPHY was the featured speaker at the Cullman Medical Center on Saturday, March
(continued next page)

No Fool's Chronicle

BECAUSE OF SPRING Break, there will not be an April 1 edition of The Shelton Chronicle. If you would like information included in the next newsletter, please call the Public Relations office at 391-2221.

The Shelton Chronicle is published twice monthly. ♪

Alexander to Present Paper at National Conference

SHELTON STATE instructor Katherine Alexander presented a paper at the Autobiography Conference on March 12 at Hofstra University located in Hemphill, New York. The title of the paper was "First Person Singular; Autobiography in the 20th Century." ♪

Shelton State Sponsors Food Show for Teachers

THE ANNUAL FOOD SHOW for teachers in the Tuscaloosa City and County Schools Child Nutrition programs was held at the C.A. Fredd Campus on Friday, March 11. The event was held from 9 a.m. - 12 noon in the cafetorium and was coordinated by the college's food service department under the direction of Elizabeth Bailey. ♪

Shelton Music Students Receive Honors

TEN SHELTON STATE students represented the college recently in the National Association of Teachers of Singing (NATS). State Auditions were held in Mobile. Shelton State was the only two-year college represented, with the remaining 100 participants coming from four year universities or private teaching studios.

IT'S AN HONOR: Black Named Woman of Achievement

LYDA BLACK WAS named Woman of Achievement in the Career Accomplishments category recently by the Tombigbee Girl Scout Council and was recognized at a luncheon at the Sheraton Capstone. Mrs. Black has been active in the community in the past and was named Northport Citizen of the Year in 1991. She serves on the Board of Directors for Kentuck and is a member of the Zoning Commission for the City of Northport. She currently chairs the communications technology division of the college. ♪

NEW FACES AND PLACES: New Maintenance Employees

TWO NEW PEOPLE HAVE been hired to work in Shelton State's maintenance department.

Deborah Wilson, who was a part-time employee, has been hired full time by the college, and Joni Nolan has been hired as a part-time housekeeper on the C.A. Fredd Campus. ♪

Foundation News

LOCAL BUSINESSMAN Jack Kubiszyn has been elected president of the Shelton State Foundation for 1994. Kubiszyn also serves as a member of the Tuscaloosa City Council, representing District 6, and is president of the Kubiszyn Agency. He is a lifetime member of the Million Dollar Roundtable and
(continued next page)

Four of the students from Shelton were selected for the semi-final competition. Those students were Lisa Blewitt, Kathy Tucker, Missy Hay, and Steve Hines. Steve placed first in the Adult Men with Two Years of Voice Study Category. Lisa placed first in the Freshman Women's Category, the largest category in the auditions with 25 competitors. ♪ belongs to the Tuscaloosa Estate Planning Council. Kubiszyn has served on the Foundation Board of Directors since it began in 1984.

Foundation, cont.

First vice president of the Foundation this year is Chuck Tebo, and Mary Hartley is second vice president. Verta Barr is third vice president. Paul Ray serves as secretary/treasurer of the organization.

Augusta Robinson was recently hired by the Foundation to be assistant to the executive secretary. Ms. Robinson is a native of Hale County but has lived in Tuscaloosa for many years. She has attended Shelton State Community College and serves on the school's Public Relations Advisory Committee. She also serves on the board of directors for the Mental Health Association and is an active member of Christ Episcopal church. In her spare time, she is a avid gardener. For information on the Foundation, call 391-2298 or 391-2221. ☞

Pair, cont.

12, in Cullman, Alabama. The topic of Dr. Murphy's presentation was "Self Esteem and the Dangers of Dieting."

Taking center stage at the conference (in addition to Dr. Murphy) was Alabama Governor Jim Folsom and his wife. Over 500 people were present to hear the presentation. ☞

Buccaneer Golf Team Ranked 17th in Nation

THE SHELTON STATE GOLF team received notification this spring from the National Junior College Athletic Association that it has received preseason ranking of 17th in the United States. Three Alabama teams are already listed in the top 10 rankings for two year colleges in the United States. Central Alabama is ranked second; Wallace College at Dothan is sixth and Wallace State Community College at Hanceville is ranked ninth nationally. ☞

New Travel Agency Course for Split-Term

BEGINNING MARCH 16, Shelton State will offer a new course, "Basic Airline Ticketing." This course may be taken as part of a one year certificate degree program in travel and tourism. Shelton State is the only community college in the state to offer a specialty in travel agency operations. Travel agents may also take this course for professional development. The course will be offered Monday and Wednesday, 4 - 7 p.m., in the learning resource center located on the Fifteenth Street campus. Davis Culp, Tuscaloosa native and the former owner of All Seasons Travel Agency, will be the instructor. For additional information on the course, call 391-2917. ☞

English Faculty Members Attend Conference

JOYCE JOLLY AND Sharon Deck, members of Shelton's English faculty, recently participated in the Southern Voices Literary Festival which was sponsored by the Hoover Public Library. This year's conference honored Shelby Foote, noted writer and Civil War authority, who was the keynote speaker. Foote's recent PBS review on the Civil War won widespread acclaim.

Three Shelton State faculty members also attended the Alabama College English Teachers Association which was held in Montgomery recently. Attending from Shelton were Joyce and Jim Jolly, and Sharon Deck. The meeting was held in the Shakespeare Festival Theatre. Jim Jolly was elected to serve as secretary of the organization for the coming year. ☞

Missing From the College

THE FOLLOWING ITEMS are missing or have been stolen from the Skyland Campus: A Sony boombox DCD radio and cassette player, and a Sony 3 VCR are missing from Room 152. A dark brown podium and an easel are missing from Room 146. If you have any information concerning these items, please contact the office of the Dean of Students. ☞

Community News

FROM TUSCALOOSA County Parks and Recreation Authority (call 553-3671 for more info):

March 18:	Softball Registration
March 28-April 1:	AEA Week Day Camp
April 1:	Jelly Bean Hunt
April 2:	Easter Egg Extravaganza

Tired of the Same Old New Year's Eve Parties?

SPEND NEXT NEW YEAR'S EVE in London, England! Sponsored by Shelton State, the tour includes hotel accommodations, a sight-seeing tour, theatre voucher, buffet breakfasts, and other amenities in the overall cost of $975.⁰⁰ per person. Call Terry Merritt, 391-2917, for more info.